The 5th International Conference on Digital Arts, Media and Technology (DAMT) and 3rd ECTI Northern Section Conference on Electrical, Electronics, Computer and Telecommunications Engineering (NCON) will be jointly held in Pattaya, Thailand from 11th to 14th March 2020, co-hosted by Northern Section of the Electrical Engineering/Electronics, Computer, Telecommunications and Information Technology Association of Thailand (ECTI Thailand) in cooperation with major industries and academics in northern Thailand and Burapha University to be annual international forums in this region. The objective is to create an opportunity for researchers, developers, designers, engineers and technologists to exchange ideas and discuss development in digital technology and engineering for strengthening the growth of creative industries. The dual conferences will be held in Pattaya which is an enchanting city with delightful natural beauty and fascinating landmarks in the eastern shore of Thailand. The technical program will focus on researches and solutions for supporting digital economy to stabilize regional and global social development along with environmental preservation. Both oral and exhibition sessions are available as well as proposed special sessions aiming at complementing the regular program with topics of particular interest that cut across and beyond traditional disciplines. Prospective authors are invited to submit original work in full papers for oral session or extended abstract for exhibition session.

Quick Guide for Attendee

The screenshot shows the GoToWebinar website homepage. On the left, a woman with glasses is smiling while reading a document. The main heading reads "Tell your story. Master new skills." followed by the subtext "We have the resources to help you host each webinar with confidence." Below this are three service cards: "I'm New to Webinars", "I'm a Webinar Pro", and "My Trial Expired What's Next?". Each card includes a brief description and a "Learn More" button. At the bottom, there are three icons with text: "Get the support you need", "See GoToWebinar on the road", and "You're on the move - your webinars should be too.".
